Connect Conditions of Use for Parents

1. Only parents or responsible persons as defined in the School Education Act 1999 and verified by the school will be given access to Connect.

2. Any person/s signing up for the service understands his/her responsibility for keeping the service access details (username and password) confidential.

3. The Department of Education does not accept responsibility for any event arising from unauthorised access or use of Connect.

Limits of the Service

The Department of Education provides Connect as an online service for teachers, students, parents and Department staff. Connect is a communication channel that schools may use to communicate with parents/guardians on matters impacting student education. The Department of Education does not undertake to provide all student-related information via Connect.

When using Connect, I agree that:

1. The information contained in Connect is personal and private information.

2. I will not interfere with network security, the data of another user, or attempt to log into the network with a user name and/or password of another user.

3. If I become aware of unauthorised access to my parent account I will immediately inform the school.

4. I consent to the logging, monitoring, auditing and disclosure of my use of Connect.

5. Any breach of these conditions for which I am responsible will result in my access to Connect being suspended or revoked.
